MORSEMEN EXPECT TO REAP SWEET REVENGE BY DEFEATING C. U.

Squad Works Hard to Wipe Out Defeat of Last Year by Piling Up Big Score.

BACKS STAGE COME BACK

Past Scores Show G. W. Evenly Matched With Red and Black.

ACTIVITY TICKET WILL NOT ADMIT TO GAME

Student Activities Tickets will not admit to the Catholic University game Thanksgiving Day. Holders of the Student Activities tickets may exchange these for a ticket which will admit to the C. U. game at the Treasurer's office, 2101 G Street, or the office of the Medical School, 1335 H Street, or the office of the Law School, Fifteenth and K Streets. The exchange will be made free of charge.

Revenge, fast, furious and sweet, is what the G. W. U. football machine is looking forward to in the game against Catholic University Thanksgiving Day at the Central Stadium, Thirteenth and Clifton Streets. The hostilities open at 12:30 o'clock.

Last year the team left the field with tears in their eyes, having been beaten by the flukiest kind of a break in the game. This year the local eleven will be set to even accounts with a sweeping victory.

Comparative scores point to the fact that the two teams are about equal, and the Stadium should be the scene of the best grid game of the local season on Turkey Day. William and Mary of Norfolk, Va., held G. W. to a 7-7 tie and were extremely lucky in doing so. This same team beat Richmond College, which in turn defeated Catholic University; however, C. U. beat William and Mary.

ENTER WITH FULL STRENGTH

The Hatchettes are entering the last act of the 1921 football season with full strength, and can be counted on to give a good account of themselves.

The offensive strength of the C. U. team is centered around Curran and McCarthy, their speedy backs. Curran gave a good exhibition of broken field running against the University of Maryland last Saturday, but he will find it rather difficult to gain around the G. W. ends while Ptak, Shaw and Altrup are holding down those positions.

The Buff and Blue backfield, with the exception of Loehler and Crouch, gave a poor account of themselves last Friday against Gallaudet College, but they are all burning to retrieve themselves and Robb's Brooklanders are going to have to be awfully good to stop the Hatchette ball carriers.

SIREN AND JAZZ DANCE FEATURE FRAT REVEL

Nail, Daily and Wee Miss Taylor Entertain More Than 500 Persons At Football Hop.

Beauty, jazz, and collegiate dancing featured the Interfraternity dance held in honor of the football squad on armistice evening in the two spacious ballrooms of the Raleigh Hotel.

The ballrooms were appropriately decorated with the banners of the various fraternities participating, and to the tune of the jazziest of jazz music all the well-known celebrities of George Washington danced until after 1 o'clock. It is estimated more than 250 couples attended the function.

A diversion to the program was offered in the sensational dancing of Tex Nail and Jack Daily. Petite Carroll Taylor gave a splendid exhibition of rhythmic dancing.

HOLIDAY ANNOUNCED

The Registrar's office announces that the Thanksgiving recess will extend from Wednesday evening, Nov. 23, to Monday morning, Nov. 28, as usual. This will give G. W. students a four-day vacation, in which they will undoubtedly munch the proverbial turkey and cranberry sauce and otherwise take a general vacation from study.

BUFF AND BLUE GUNMENS SHOOT AGAINST OLD RIVALS IN FIRST MATCH OF YEAR TOMORROW; WORLD CHAMP ON TEAM ASSURES HIGH SCORE

Two Cups Offered To Winning Team;

Five Stages of Fire

By Seven Rifle Clubs

Led by Captain Walter R. Stokes, world's rifle champion, the George Washington rifle team will enter its first match of the year tomorrow, competing in the District of Columbia Interclub championship shoot.

As opponents in the match the team will meet teams from Georgetown and Maryland State, its old rivals, as well as the National Capital Rifle Club's teams 1 and 2 and the Ordnance Rifle Club team, which has won this match for the last two years.

The awards to be won by winners of the shoot are the Walford cup, which goes to the winner of the firing from a standing position, and the Military Service Legion cup, which is given to the team receiving the highest aggregate score.

The members of the team which will represent G. W. U. in the match are W. R. Stokes (captain), G. R. Trimble, J. R. Greeley, Hugh Everett, Jr., H. C. Espey and J. M. Barry. Each of these men is an excellent shot, and the captain, Stokes, now holds the world's championship as an expert rifleman.

The course of fire will be as follows: First stage, 200 yards, 10 shots standing. Second stage, 200 yards, 10 shots kneeling, rapid fire. Third stage, 200 yards, 10 shots sitting, rapid fire. Fourth stage, 300 yards, 5 shots, sitting. Fifth stage, 600 yards, 10 shots prone.

Special recognition will be made of the highest individual score in the aggregate in the form of a gold medal and the title, "Champion of the District of Columbia," and the high man at each range receives a silver watch fob.

This match will end the outdoor season and the team will commence practice for the National Intercollegiate Indoor Championship, which will take place about the middle of February. At this meet last year G. W. U. came in a close second to Norwich University, which won the match.

The course of fire has been changed since last year, being made much harder. The course will be similar to that fired over in international matches, the object being to train the boys for the American collegiate team which will be sent to Europe either this year or next. Plans for this are being worked out at present by the Intercollegiate Association.

The team is still looking for a range near the school, having failed to get space for one in the Winder Building. Members of the team spent a month last summer at Camp Perry, Ohio, shooting in the National Matches. The team members won many honors at Camp Perry.

Letter Game, Hope of Plugger, To Be Set Every Year.

G. W. LEADS LOCALS WITH NEW DECREE

George Washington is the first of the local colleges to inaugurate a "letter game" and award the school letter to all players who participate in the contest, although the rule is almost universally applied throughout the collegiate world. Catholic University awards the school insignia to those who play in two designated games, but at Georgetown, University of Maryland, and Gallaudet the old requirement of participation in a percentage of the season's games is still in vogue.

Displaying a disposition to put the awarding of varsity letters for football on a more equitable basis, the Student Council, at the suggestion of Coach Quigley, took up this question at the meeting Thursday evening, November 10, and after discussion voted to amend the present eligibility rule so as to include a "letter" game, participation in which may entitle a player to the varsity letter.

Participation in three-fifths of the numbers of quarters of games on the schedule or in five full games has heretofore constituted the requirement for award of a varsity letter, subject to recommendation of the coach and approval of the team and approval by the Student Council, but in the future a letter may be awarded for participation in a "letter" game, to be designated by the council each year, subject to the aforementioned recommendation and approval. The designated "letter" game for 1921 is the Catholic University or Thanksgiving game, set for November 24.

DOES NOT RESTRICT OLD RULE.

That this amendment does not in any way restrict the working of the former rule was pointed out. A player who has participated in either three-fifths of the quarters of the schedule or five full games or the "letter" game may be awarded a letter. In other words, the present eligibility rule has been changed to read, "Participation in three-fifths of the number of quarters of games on the schedule or in five full games or in the 'letter' game."

The rule as to recommendation and award remains, "Managers of the various representative varsity teams and authorized class teams shall present a list of eligibles signed by the captain and manager of the team and the Director of Student Activities to the

WEST SEATS FOR G. W. AT TURKEY DAY FRAY

Section in Central Stadium Reserved For Buff and Blue Rooters; Tax Cards Do Not Admit.

Arrangements for the George Washington Catholic University game, to be held at Central Stadium November 24, were announced last night. The reserved seats for this game will be located in the middle portion of the stands, while George Washington rooters will occupy the seats nearest Thirteenth Street. Catholic University rooters will occupy the seats nearest Eleventh Street. All G. W. students purchasing reserved seats are requested to sit next to the G. W. section of the stands so as to make as big a noise as possible.

Student activity tickets, also, will not be good for this game. However, signers will not be compelled to pay admission. Each signer of the tax will, previous to the day set for the game, be mailed a ticket which will admit the holder to the game. Anybody wishing to get a ticket before they are mailed out may do so by applying at the Treasurer's office.

BASEBALL TEAM IN '22 DEBATED BY MANAGERS

Board Plans Stiff Football Schedule for Next Year; Approves New Council Appointees.

Football in G. W. U. will have a heavier schedule next year, according to plans made at the Board of Directors' meeting October 8 as reported by Bryan Morse, Director of Student Activities. Means of strengthening the football team and increasing the University's prominence in this sport also were discussed.

The basketball schedule for 1921-22 was ratified, and Mr. King-Smith was reappointed director of the Glee Club at the meeting.

The elections by the Student Council of all managers and business managers of various activities as announced in the last issue of The Hatchette were approved; but it was questioned by the Board whether it will be practicable to maintain baseball as a college sport next season, since baseball has not proved to be self-supporting.

The Board has observed other universities having winning teams suffer a financial loss. The question will be considered further, and if conditions prove to be favorable later a baseball team will be maintained.

Defeat C. U.!!!

Desire for revenge will be the motive that will urge on the Hatchette team to supreme effort for a win against Catholic University in the annual Thanksgiving Day game. The team can be depended upon to do its part, but it will be able to do more if plenty of pep and spirit is shown by the student body back of it. To this end a large cheering section should be organized for the game.

At least three hundred male students could be organized and marched in unison to their seats already reserved for them. With two or three good cheer leaders and a band, the cheers, yells and noise would do much to show our squad the way to victory.

The cheering at the Georgetown game was not as good as it could or should have been for the simple reason that ample precautions were not taken for seating the cheerers together. Men and women who had never even seen George Washington University were allowed to come in and even Georgetown adherents were there. With a little effort these people could have been kept out, and this must be done at the C. U. game, if a huge volume of noise is to greet and back our team throughout the conflict.

With a little forethought it will be easy enough to work out a system of getting an organized cheering section together. Either the cheerers should meet at a designated point near the park and march, three hundred strong, to their seats, or a pasteboard football or some other kind of button with some significant inscription on it could be given to those of the cheering section and only those with this badge would be admitted to the reserved section. Let's get some spirit, pep, yells and songs back of the team and DEFEAT C. U.!

The Letter Football Game

Upon recommendation of Coach Quigley of the football squad and Bryan Morse, director of student activities, the Student Council has passed an amendment to the by-laws to the effect that any member of the football squad playing in the Catholic University game of this year is eligible to receive a letter. This is an addition to the by-law which provides that only men who have played in three-fifth of the quarters or in five games are eligible to receive this distinction.

This system is employed in practically all of the large universities and is a notable innovation here. It gives every man two chances to get his letter, insures a larger number of men for working material, and will instill more zeal into the work. It will enable the coach to place his best men in all the games and will allow him to be unbiased in the selection of men for letters. More enthusiasm for football will be infused into the students, and all interests will rise to a climax impossible to have been heightened in any other way.

The Student Council will have final jurisdiction in the donation of these letter awards. This will provide against including in this list any man who is not really a bona fide student and justified in receiving the letter. There is no doubt but that this is the best method to be employed. Let us hope it meets with success in raising the standard of our team.

ORGANIZATION W. C. A. D. AT G. W. U.

President Greets New Activity; Names Officers in Washington in Affiliation.

At a meeting of the G. W. U. branch of the Y. W. C. A. held Monday noon in Lisner Hall, the assembled members were greeted by Miss Katherine L. Richards, student secretary of the east central committee of the Y. W. C. A. Richards is touring the country in an effort to interest more deeply students of schools and colleges in the noble work of the Y. W. C. A.

More particularly, the purpose of Miss Richards in addressing the University branch is the affiliation of this local chapter with the national organization. The G. W. U. branch is organized and a great deal of spirit is being manifested by its members. The affiliation of a local chapter with the national organization would mean a broadening and branching out of endeavor.

The meeting turned to a very enjoyable luncheon in the W. U. C. rooms, Miss Richards being the guest of honor.

President Perkins addressed the organization setting of the George Washington University branch of the Young Women's Christian Association, which was held in the Chapel of Lisner Hall on Sunday, Nov. 7. President Hodgkins welcomed the new activity into the University and expressed his wishes for its success.

HUGHES SCINTILLATES AS GALLAUDET TIES

Charging Center Blocks Punt to Tie Score; Fumble Responsible for Gallaudet's Counter.

Playing a mediocre game, with the fight and punch which has been evident in previous games missing, the G. W. U. eleven was held to a 7-7 tie by the Gallaudet team at American League Park last Friday, November 11. The only outstanding features of the game were the defensive play of the local eleven and the individual work of "Dinty" Hughes of the Hatchettes and LaFountain for the silent boys.

Overconfidence, lack of ability to hold the ball, and a series of bad breaks in the game is the reason why Gallaudet today is celebrating a "victory" over the Hatchette team. The first break in the game came in the first few minutes of play when Capt. Springston, who failed to play up to his usual standard, fumbled and Gallaudet's alert halfback, Seipp, grabbed the pigskin and dashed 50 yards to a touchdown. LaFountain added the extra point.

The home boys' score came as the result of a 15-yard penalty and by the individual work of "Dinty" Hughes. With the ball on his own 10-yard line, LaFountain dropped back to kick and Hughes tore a big hole through the line, threw himself at the kicker, and blocked the attempted kick with his face. The ball bounded behind the goal line and Jawish bounced on it for six points. After recovering from the blow Hughes kicked the goal.

It wasn't until the last period that G. W. showed anything like the attack that fought Georgetown to a standstill. With Loehler and Crouch smashing the tackles and with the aerial attack working to perfection, the ball was three times carried to the Gallaudet 10-yard mark, but the team lacked the punch to carry it over.

Springston missed one try for a field goal and Hughes missed two. Ptak played a creditable game at end, and Crouch and Loehler hit the line in fine style, but, with Hughes, these were the only men who played real football.

PRESIDENT HODGKINS WILL ASK BUILDINGS

Trustees Will Hear Proposal To Secure New Quarters by Endowment Drive; Need Teachers.

President Hodgkins, outlining the policy of the administration at the faculty meeting Wednesday evening, showed the urgency of providing extra equipment for George Washington University.

Acting upon the President's suggestion, the executive committee will meet this week to discuss with him the details of the endowment campaign which would enable the University to secure buildings and instructors to care for its growing needs. The committee will lay the plan before the trustees November 22, who will decide whether such a campaign shall be started.

"If business conditions are favorable," Prof. Croissant commented, "it is quite likely the campaign will be undertaken. But it is to be purely local, no one being asked to contribute except the friends of the University and alumni here in Washington. The success of the local campaign will determine its extension into a national campaign. So the great national institution that George Washington might become must be the outgrowth of a strong local institution."

"In the event the campaign is started, if the students get wholeheartedly behind the movement they will be doing more to give the University its rightful place among the leading schools of the country than by any other way in which they could lend their cooperation."

Speaking of the necessity for funds, Prof. Croissant said: "We need instructors. Our sections are too crowded. If the classes were smaller the personal relations between student and teacher would intensify the value of the instruction. But every available room is occupied now. If we had the instructors, we still would have no place to put them. We must have more buildings in order to grow."

It is notable that Goucher College of Baltimore has recently launched a six-million dollar endowment fund campaign. They hope to secure from each alumna about $300, either by personal subscription or canvass. Vassar has found it a convenient season for a similar project.

BATTLE AT P. S. K. HOUSE

To arouse enthusiasm and practice cheers so as to assure the Hatchette aggregation of the united support of the rooters at the G. W.-C. U. game, the Interfraternity Association will hold a smoker at the Phi Sigma Kappa house, 1607 Massachusetts Avenue, at 8 p. m., November 22, William L. Neill, president of the association, announced last night. Faculty, students, and friends of the University are invited to attend.

PLAYERS START SEASON; PLAN BIG MUSICAL SHOW

The first meeting of the "G. W. U. Players" has been called for Tuesday, November 22, by the president, Tex Nall. It is to be held in the chapel. Election of officers and plans for the ensuing year will be the order of business. It is hoped that the Players will be able to stage a musical comedy this season.

"G. W.'s" PROMISED ALL
GRIDMEN FACING C. U.
IN THANKSGIVING CLASH

Student Council for ratification and award.

Bryan Morse presented Coach Quigley to the council and the coach then proceeded to explain that under the present rule it is altogether possible for a deserving player to miss the letter award, either through physical injury or through lack of funds. The man who reports regularly for practice and puts all he has in the game, even though it be not A-1 football, is as fully deserving of a letter as the star performer on the gridiron, was the opinion of Coach Quigley.

To suitably reward these staunch supporters of the game there should be some way to award them a letter for participation in one or, at the most, two games. "A man may do enough to win a letter in only playing five seconds," was the coach's terse statement in setting forth this feature. Some members of the council vouchsafed the opinion that under such a system of award some players might contrive to get a letter by fair means or foul, were the coach susceptible, by managing to play in the "letter" game. They were assured by the coach that no men enlisting for this purpose would be recommended for a letter.

Some 20 men are necessary on a varsity football squad, it was stated, to compose the first string of players, and although all of these men may not be called upon to play in three-fifths of the quarters or five full games, they are indispensable to a football machine and should be awarded letters in most cases. Further, the psychological effect of a "letter" game is not wanting, in that a player is spurred on to the supreme effort if he feels that that game means football recognition by his university.
